Ruthman Companies on the Road

Chicago to New Orleans...

The IMTS Show this month, featuring Gusher, BSM and Fulflo, was a big success for all...great exposure and opportunities to meet new as well as existing customers and discuss new applications for our products were some of the highlights.

Becky and Gary getting ready for Prime-Time

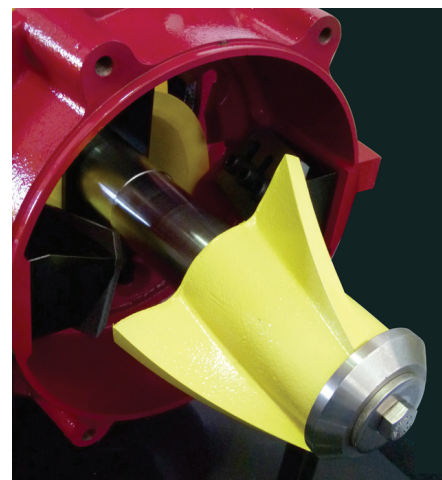

Looking forward to WEFTEC... The world's largest annual water quality exhibition in New Orleans, where Gusher, Nagle and Deming Turbine Pumps will be exhibiting and opening new sales avenues to the municipal and wastewater industries.

Gusher Chopper Pumps

A Work of Art...

Pictured is Gary Smith's crafted presentation of the Gusher horizontal Chopper Pump. The Chopper series is available in both vertical and horizontal models in 2-4-6 sizes. The impeller and adjustable blade are #28 hardened chrome. These Choppers will be available in submersible styles

Ruthman Companies in Print

Have you seen Bill Hein's article on submersible pumps featured in the September issue of Pumps&Systems Magazine? Also featured is our Gusher, Nagle, Deming ad on page 31... Thanks to Bill for a potential Pulitzer Prize winning article! Also look for the Ruthman Company profile in the upcoming October Pumps and Systems. We are also featured in the new magazine Modern Pumping where we appear on page 13.

Scott Thurrott sent us this great photo he shot of an antique turbine pump. It was a diesel driven pump with a right angle gear. The engine is gone and the gear is still on top of the pump head in the picture. As you can see, it outlasted the ground around it. We liked it so much we made a poster out of it. We're thinking a Gusher service engineer could have it up and running again in no time?!
